

PREPARES TO FIGHT CHARGES OF BEAVERS

Walter McElreath and Geo. Westmoreland to Defend Suspended Chief of Police at Trial Thursday Night.

FURTHER CHARGES ARE PROBABLE, SAYS W. P. FAIR

Chief to Summon Witnesses—Commissioners Assure Fair Trial—Men and Religion Movement Leaders Meet.

Chief James I. Beavers, under suspension pending trial Thursday night on charges preferred by the police board, Monday night, Tuesday morning engaged Walter McElreath and George Westmoreland to defend him at the formal trial. He also went to the police board and secured about thirty subpoenas with which to summon witnesses in his behalf.

"I will have no statement to make for the present," said Chief Beavers, "but I will make one later, and everything will come out."

On the other hand, Chairman W. P. Fair, of the police board, announced that those members of the board who brought the charges against Chief Beavers would summon a large number of witnesses to substantiate their charges.

Among these witnesses will be some of the leading citizens of Atlanta.

Lodge Further Charges.

Chairman Fair announced that further charges of insubordination would be lodged against Chief Beavers for his actions at the board of police on Tuesday night, when, after being repeatedly ruled out of order by Chairman Fair, Chief Beavers persisted in criticizing the commissioners. J. W. English, of the Johnson and the chairman.

"I will summon witnesses to testify as to Beavers' conduct at that meeting," said Chairman Fair, "and all the newspaper reporters who were present will be asked to testify as to what they saw."

Chairman Fair also announced that Chief Beavers' trial would take place in the court room at 10 o'clock, and that the trial would be fair and impartial.

Beckling Chairman Fair in this respect, was Commissioner Andy King.

"I too, am going to see to it that Beavers gets a fair trial," said Commissioner King, "and I will not be satisfied until, of course, I will not vote to discharge. On the other hand, if they are proven, I will vote according to my convictions."

Following statements by Commissioner S. A. Wardlaw, Tuesday, were to the effect that he did not expect Chief Beavers to get much of a showing at his trial.

Fair "Cut and Dried."

"It is all cut and dried," said this commissioner, who was returned the other committee, "that returned the report against Chief Beavers out of which grew the charges filed by the commissioners against the police chief on Monday night."

He will take my defeat gracefully, though, I am doubtful if the charges brought against him will be sustained. I might come out of the probe wrong, as claimed, because I do not know the probe report was a condemnation of Chief Beavers."

"It is apparent that there are enough votes to oust Chief Beavers, and I expect him to go at tomorrow's trial, and I expect that he will not be charged with any of the charges."

He has no chance. What he has done and the question of his being proven, will not cut much figure when the vote to discharge him is taken."

Criticism by Marion Jackson Tuesday to the effect that he thought Mr. Woodward and members of the police board should be recalled by the voters, and that he probably would circulate a petition with such a view, were met with a disposition to entirely ignore them in the part of members of the board.

"I don't concern me what Mr. Jackson wishes to do," stated Commissioner King. "If he wants me recalled, I will go, but I am going to vote this subject according to my convictions."

I firmly believe that Mr. Jackson is only springing a lot of hot air about his recall."

Forward Movement Active.

Members of the executive committee of the Men and Religion Movement met in executive session in the office of John J. Egan, Tuesday night, to restore to his position Chief Beavers, who was suspended on Monday night.

The members of the committee decided that it was the sense of the committee that it report to the meeting of the Men and Religion Movement, Tuesday night, and urge that a petition to recall Mayor Woodward be circulated.

Chairman Egan, Marion Jackson, J. P. Jackson, H. A. Etheridge, and J. W. English, who were present, attended this executive session.

Chairman Egan stated that he thought the fight had gone far enough, and that he would not continue it.

The meeting of the Men and Religion Movement will probably be held for Tuesday night, and will be followed by a mass meeting.

Captain W. M. Mayo, appointed acting chief during the suspension of Chief Beavers, will in charge of the headquarters Tuesday, arriving at his headquarters at 7 o'clock in the morning.

During the afternoon he held a long conference with Chairman Fair.

LOCAL OPTION BILL GETS ADVERSE VOTE BY THE COMMITTEE

Whatever hopes the local option advocates had of seeing provisions of that character come before this legislature were blasted when the house committee on temperance voted yesterday that the local option bill be not introduced in the legislature this year.

Mr. Bale, of Floyd, who introduced the bill, made a ten-minute speech to the committee before they went into executive session. The adverse vote followed. This bill did not call for local option to be declared by the legislature, but rather a referendum which, if the bill should be passed by the legislature, would require that the people vote on it at the next election. Legislation of this nature is the basis of prohibition in the legislature which is called police regulation. The people should be given the chance to say whether they desire to be governed by such legislation.

The bill was killed by a vote of 10 to 2.

Mr. Stark, chairman of the committee, made the following statement after the committee meeting: "We acted this afternoon only on the local option bill by Mr. Bale of Floyd, and that bill was reported adversely."

"I was sorry that the committee failed to act on the Fullbright bill for the Webb-Knox bill. I think this matter ought to be reported. While I am conservative in these matters, believing as I do that the only sound method of dealing with such matters in Georgia is by beer, still I believe the house ought to have the right to pass on these bills."

PROHIBITION LEADERS PREPARE FOR ACTION

In Caucus at Ansley Hotel Name Fullbright Floor Leader.

That an organized effort to secure the passage of certain radical prohibition measures will be made was indicated when the prohibition leaders of the house met in caucus last night at the Hotel Ansley, named Henry J. Fullbright, of Burke, floor leader and supported him with a strong advisory board.

The caucus was presided over by Representative Hopkins, of Dickerson, Tennessee. The only thing the house temperance committee did yesterday afternoon was to recommend unfavorably the local option bill, whose passage in the house, if it had been recommended favorably, would have been very doubtful. But as yet the house temperance committee has not taken any action on the bill, and the prohibitionists are waiting for the consideration of the house.

Whether last night's prohibition caucus was connected in any way with the temperance committee's meeting yesterday afternoon was not stated last night, but the caucus is regarded as the initiative of a strong prohibition movement to prevent the death of prohibition measures in the house committee. As it is claimed, this happened in the past, and before the general assembly the measures which have been introduced in the past have been defeated.

Probably a stronger leadership could not have been selected for prohibition in the house than that chosen last night. The caucus was presided over by Judge Hopkins. A number of Atlanta prohibition workers were present as invited guests. They included Thomas B. Feider, W. Woods White, Dr. H. M. DuBois and others.

4,300 Cases Handled by Recorder Johnson in Space of 98 Days

Names in Big Police Court Docket Represent Those Who Have Run Whole Gamut of Petty Crime.

When Clarence DeLong, a negro, charged with disorderly conduct, had been fined $175 by Judge Johnson in the recorder's court Monday afternoon, the big docket book on which is entered the disposition of all cases was filled to the last line, showing that four thousand three hundred prisoners had passed before the judge in 98 days between April 15 and July 15.

Between those two dates Judge Johnson has passed upon cases ranging from the petty crime of a thief and the murderer he has sat in judgment. He has heard mothers and fathers pleading for wayward sons and daughters and sometimes in the same hour watched the criminal plead for his life with the calm of one long accustomed to hearing words of doom.

The first man whose name appeared on the big book Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock on April 15, was George Miller, a negro, charged with disorderly conduct. The judge fined him $175 and made the first marks on the first page of the big volume.

There are many such books on the shelves of big rooms where the city's records are kept. Between the same dates in 1914 there were not so many cases, and it is safe to say, according to Clerk Jimmy Meade, that over four thousand cases in a little over three months is a record for a new book city.

The new book city, opened by the judge at the Tuesday morning session of the recorder's court, was the first of the kind and the city turned over a new leaf.

GERMANS SAILED FOR RUSSIAN PORTS Where the Kaiser's Armies Are Moving at All It Is Yard by Yard and at Tremendous Cost.

The German field marshal, Von Mackensen, has taken a few villages on the way to the Lublin-Cholm railway, between the Poles and the Russians, and the Austrians, by a counter offensive at Sokal, have taken positions which will make the German flank safer, but Berlin sees no more reports that "otherwise the position of the German troops under Von Mackensen is unchanged."

London, July 27.—Austro-German attempts to envelop the Russian armies defending Warsaw and to capture the Polish capital, which for a time progressed almost with the momentum of the offensive that cleared Galicia of Russians, have been almost halted, and where the Germans are moving it is only yard by yard and at tremendous cost.

On motion the body unanimously voted to ask the people to ratify the act placing the election of a waterworks superintendent and chief of construction in the hands of council, and the act to pave streets on the ten-year payment plan.

PEACE CONFERENCE

SOUGHT IN MEXICO

Factional Leaders Are Moving to Anticipate Action by the United States—Embargo on Arms Probable

Washington, July 27.—Efforts to bring about a conference of military leaders for the participation of the final appeal to faction leaders in the United States, are reported under way in the southern republic.

Information reached Washington tonight that several of the various factions were consulting their leaders with a view to assembling a peace conference either with or without General Carranza. The report added to the interest of observers by intimations that the administration was considering asking Carranza to reconsider his refusal to participate in peace talks. President Wilson urged two months ago.

Diaz Lombardo, General Villa's foreign secretary, who came to Washington to study the attitude of the Washington government, is reported to have returned to Mexico convinced that his chief, General Felipe Angeles, Villa's chief military adviser, recently had General Maniayeva, who is believed to be the chief of the military, said his adherents will join in the fight against the rebels. He said the constitutional government and ultimately the people will win.

Manuel Caico, ambassador to the United States, said the regime and the rebels are not actively allied or hostile. He said the rebels, who are based in the mountains of Yucatan, are not interested in the political situation, but in the factions. If possible, he should like to see the rebels and the government meet at a peace conference, to support a conference of representatives of all the factions.

An arms embargo was said tonight to have been agreed upon by the United States and the next step of the Washington government.

Mexico City remained cut off from the rest of the world today despite efforts to get word out. Reports that Carranza forces had entered the city were denied by the government confirmation.

The Associated Press agency asserted that General Obregon already had reached the city and would be able to re-enter the city.

General Obregon of the seized San Luis Potosi, said he had sent troops to Trevino and reinforcements from Monterrey to the city.

Cornish, N. H., July 27.—It was said tonight that President Wilson was not ready to make any statement here indicating what he plans to do next in Mexico.

Washington officials are known to favor encouraging General Villa and other northern leaders to select a provisional president who can be supported by the United States. Others believe the president should place an embargo on arms exportations and still others advocate armed intervention.

San Antonio, Texas, July 27.—Congressman John I. Slayden, of Texas, today sent a telegram to Secretary of the Interior, Harold I. Ickes, reporting confiscation by General Villa of foreign-owned mining properties in Mexico valued at approximately $50,000. Mr. Slayden, who recently returned from Mexico, also has reported that the United States is against the assessment of exorbitant taxes on mining property by General Villa.

Mines reported confiscated by General Villa are owned by American, English and Canadian interests.

worse," Mr. Slayden said. "I am told that the leaders of the various revolutionary movements are not only forcing loans, but insisting that the money turned over shall be gold and, failing to meet the demand, the unwilling lender is shot or imprisoned, notwithstanding the fact that the gold demanded cannot really be found in Mexico. If I am correctly advised, both the prominent revolutionary leaders make this unreasonable demand."

AMERICAN FARMERS URGE WILSON TO ACT ON COTTON EMBARGO

Americus, Ga., July 27.—(Special).—At a largely attended meeting of merchants and farmers held this afternoon at the American Chamber of Commerce resolutions were adopted urging action upon the part of President Wilson to have the embargo on cotton raised at once. Such embargo, it was declared, tends to depreciate the price of cotton, the new crop being only a few weeks off and much of last year's crop still being on hand without a market, and such being the case it is liable to bring poverty and distress to many who are dependent upon a price for their cotton that only a free market will afford, and the only means by which they may get relief.

EASTMAN'S FIRST SALE BRINGS RECORD PRICE

Eastman, Ga., July 27.—(Special).—The first bale of cotton for the 1915 season to be brought to Eastman this year was brought to town today by Jim Thomas, one of the coopers on A. O. Williamson's farm, and was weighed at Williamson's warehouse and weighed 345 pounds. The cotton was bought by William McRae, a local cotton buyer, for 19 cents per pound. This is two days later than the first bale was brought to Eastman last year. "This is the highest price that cotton brought here this year in Georgia, bringing over a cent more than last year's sale in Savannah last week, which brought 17 cents and a half." The cotton crop in Dodge this year has been cut behind very little and farmers have bought very little cotton. The cotton in Dodge county last year was sold in Dodge county last year for 14 cents and 10 cents were sold here in Eastman.

Two thousand feet of film pictures were made of the pageant, material that will be used by the Georgia Chamber of Commerce in the pictures to be used over the United States in advertising Georgia.

With Captain A. J. McBride, Jr., head of the battery, in command, the artillerymen marched through the heart of Atlanta about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, on their way from the Terminal station to their quarters in the Auditorium-Armory. When You Patronize Home Industries You Are Doing Your Part Toward Upbuilding Your Home Community

AND YOU ARE GETTING JUST AS GOOD GOODS AS MONEY CAN BUY

Some people buy blindly—or thoughtlessly. They haven't stopped to consider that right here under their nose—right in their own home community—that their neighbor is getting his pay envelope from one of our local manufacturers who make just as good goods—at no higher price—than those they have bought with an imported label.

If they bought more of the goods made at home they would help to create employment for more people.

And then there's the satisfaction to the retailer when home factories are patronized.

These manufacturers are big contributors to the development of a community. They employ our home people. The money the retailer pays them goes right back into the hands of home people with which to buy clothes and groceries and pay house rent—and school the children.

If you are a retailer, carry home-made goods.

If you are a consumer, insist upon the goods made at home.

These manufacturers will serve you and please you.

NEW AUTO TAX BILL REPORTED FAVORABLY

Provides Distribution of Fund According to County's Total Mileage.

The committee on ways and means yesterday afternoon recommended a bill to amend the Georgia automobile license law.

The bill, which was drawn by Mr. Jones, of Coweta, was to take the place of the present automobile tax law. It was referred by the ways and means committee to a subcommittee, which brought out the substitute, which is in the scale of taxation and also provides for the manner of distribution of the general fund accruing from the sale of license tags.

The present law provides that the general fund derived from the sale of license tags shall be prorated among the various counties of the state upon a basis of rural route mileage. There is at least one county, the state of Pulaski, which has no rural route mileage, although it is the "big town" county.

The bill provides that the original bill to take the basis of distribution of the general fund shall be based on the total mileage outside of the corporate limits of towns in the county.

The substitute bill provides the following scale of rates for taxation:

Motorcycles, $2; autos for 2 to 4 horsepower, $4; autos for 4 to 6 horsepower, $6; electric vehicles, $4; commercial motor trucks, 1 cent per mile; commercial motor trucks, from 1 to 2 tons, $4; commercial motor trucks, over 2 tons, $5.

Manufacturers and dealers may obtain two license tags for demonstration purposes for each car, but this payment for $2 each.

The endorsement bill, which seeks to exempt college endowments from taxation, was still being debated in the house adjourned yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Mr. Russell, of Fulton, resumed the debate Tuesday morning, the house having adjourned Monday when he had the floor. He spoke for half an hour, emphasizing the position he had formerly taken, that such a bill should be to the state constitution would be unconstitutional and would be a violation of the constitution.

Crackers Open Series With Travelers

After Day of Rest, Locals Open a Four-Game Series With Little Rock Today

After a day of rest, due to an off day in the schedule, the Crackers open a four-game series with the Little Rock Travelers in Little Rock.

This series will produce some hard fighting by the Crackers. The Travelers seem to have struck a winning blow since their home home, leading from the way they walked into the Mobile Gulf in the series last home.

The Travelers are getting a good deal of pitching and playing the home. Townsend, Holmquist and Covington were easy for the recent series with the Gulf. The locals will have to travel at their best clip to hope to hold their own with Charley Starr.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE

Lookouts 2, Pelicans 1.
